Ruth Becker travelled from India to England with her family. They were on their way home to the USA. When they arrived in England, they planned to sail to the USA in a famous new ship, the Titanic. It was the biggest and most modern ship in the world, and this was its first voyage. It was as long as three football fields . The newspapers said the Titanic was like a palace. They also said it could not sink. When the Titanic left England, the weather was good. Then, on Sunday, April 14, the weather turned cold. there were icebergs in the water. At 11.40 p.m. a lookout saw a big iceberg 500 metres ahead. An officer tried to turn the ship, but it was going too fast. and the Titanic hit the iceberg. At first, nobody was worried. Just after midnight, Ruth and her mother woke up. There was a strange silence because the ship's engines had stopped. Ruth's mother got up and spoke to a

© Read the following passage, then answer the questions: (4 marks)

Today I am a teacher. Many years ago, I used to have summer jobs. Once I worked in a factory for gloves. I liked the people who were working there .They used to treat me as if were their son. They advised me. They also helped me with my work. I learned a lot of things from them. The summer after that one, I worked as a waiter in a restaurant. I used to carry heavy trays every now and then. That is why my back and feet used to hurt me at the end of the shift. However, tips enabled me to do many things I was unable to do before. At last, I could join the swimming club without worrying about fees. I began to enjoy my spare time in a way or another. I had a lot of time to enjoy the outdoor sports. Today, I say to myself that I will never forget those days when I needed the others' help and support. I will never forget my summer jobs and the different experiences they provided me with.
