Something unforgettable happened to me yesterday morning. I got up late. Therefore, I had little time to get ready for work. I didn't do my usual routines. I didn't have anything to eat or drink. My wife was not there to help me. She was at her parents' house. I had to rush to the car park to take my car and leave for work. I forgot all my keys inside the apartment. I locked myself out. At the same time, I couldn't open or use my car. I didn't know what to do. Then a thought occurred to me, I called my wife, I asked her if she had the spare keys. Unfortunately, she didn't.

I had to call a carpenter in order to force-open the door. The carpenter didn't come immediately. He took a long time to come because of the heavy traffic. When the carpenter finally arrived, I rushed with him to the apartment building. In front of the apartment door, the carpenter set his metal box open. He first tried to open the door with a bunch of keys. But he didn't succeed. Then he started to force-open the door with a hammer and a screw driver.
