EGYPT FIGHTING AGAINST TERRORISM

EGYPT REVOLUTION, JUNE 30, 2013

After 1 year of Ex-President Mohamed Morsy became President for Egypt in an unfair election. More than 33 million Egyptians protest against Morsy

EGYPT FIGHTING TERRORISM

Egypt attacked by terrorists in several localities all over the country, since July 14, 2013, the following is an explanation of what is happening in Egypt:

After the great revolution of the Egyptian people on 30 June 2013 against Mohamed Morsi for his failing to manage the Affairs of Egypt and his dictatorship and trying to put the brotherhood members in the important positions such as the judiciary, the ministries, provincial, city councils and others. Also, Mohammed Morsi gave political cover to attend and increase terrorist groups in Sinai, and some other areas in Egypt. The national army has responded to the will of the Egyptian people and stop by their side, as happened in the 25th January 2011, against Mohamed Hosny Mubarak, so it is definitely what happened in Egypt on 30 June 2013 is a revolution of the people and not the military coup as some claim.

After that, the Muslim Brotherhood and their related armed groups start killing the Egyptian civilians and burning churches, mosques and public buildings and attacking police stations and kill soldiers and representing their bodies.

About 50 churches have come under attack, burned and destroyed by Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt over recent weeks. The unrest came to a climax this week when police personnel moved in to quash Muslim Brotherhood armed protesters who had occupied various regions, calling for attacks and violence against authorities and Christians. Muslim Brotherhood terrorists attacked Police Centers, Governmental Buildings, Hospitals and private buildings since August 14, 2013. They killed between 2 and 5 military and police personnel each day in Sinai. In addition, Brotherhood terrorists kill several Egyptian civilians each day.

In Rafah, north Sinai the terrorists killed unarmed 25 police men at the morning of August 19, 2013

The Egyptians have very bad feelings and disappointed from the USA President (Obama), his management and some European Governments because they support the Muslim Brotherhood which forms about 0.5% percent of Egypt population against the Egyptians (About 90 million citizens).

According to the recent behavior of the Muslim Brotherhood, who include some members of El Qaeda Network and other terrorists working together against the peaceful Egyptians, most of the Egyptians consider them as Terrorists
