II. Reading Comprehension: (8 Marks)

One day, I was waiting for a friend in town when I saw two men. One was sitting on the pavement wearing old clothes. He had a hat in front of him. As people passed, he said, "Can you give me money, please?". Some people threw coins into his hat, but most of them did not. The other man, who was wearing a suit, stopped people and asked them politely to lend him money to buy petrol for his car. Most people happily gave him coins or notes. During the ten minutes I was watching him, he collected a lot of money. He put it all in his pocket, but did not go to buy petrol. I soon realized that both men just wanted money. The one in the old clothes needed money more than the one in the suit, but the one in the suit got more money.
